This glorious family home has been meticulously cared for by its current owners. During their ownership over the last 10 years they have had a full new roof, tanked the cellars, replaced the majority of the windows and doors and had the garden landscaped. Recent additions in 2025 include Karndean flooring through the kitchen and hallway and new carpets in the two reception rooms.

The house sits over four floors and provides versatile accommodation allowing for families to utilise the spaces to their own personal needs. The ground floor welcomes you in with an impressive hallway with deep skirting and immaculate picture rails, showcasing the character charm this home offers. The two main reception rooms sit to the right of the hallway both boasting fireplaces, with the rear reception providing access out to a raised composite deck with steps down to the garden. The kitchen sits at the foot of the hallway and is an impressive space with wooden cupboards and drawers sitting under Quartz worktops, opening into a unique vaulted tri-aspect dining area with stunning elevated views through floor to ceiling windows over the garden and beyond.

To the first floor there are four bedrooms and the family bathroom. The bedrooms comprise of two large doubles and two singles. The doubles both offer fitted wardrobes, with those in the rear bedroom having only been installed by Sharps in 2025. The bathroom is a four piece suite comprising walk-in shower, bath, wash hand basin and WC. Stairs from the spacious landing lead up to the second floor where an impressive master suite sits under large skylights. There are generous integrated storage cupboards and a spacious landing that lends itself to a dressing area. The en-suite was re-fitted in 2024 and boasts a modern walk-in shower, wash hand basin and WC.

Externally the property boasts superb kerb-appeal. Sitting behind electric gates there is generous parking with landscaped borders. The driveway leads down the side of the property providing further parking, and leads to the garden as the rear. The garden was landscaped in 2022 and is a fabulous space with lawn and patios surrounded by established planting. An elevated decking was replaced in 2025 and is 'Millboard' composite decking ensuring a stylish and durable space. Elevated views overlook this garden and the gardens beyond, making it the perfect spot to relax in the warmer months.
