Immaculate & High Specification, Second Floor Apartment With No Onward Chain!

Situated just moments from the train station, this superb, second floor, one-bedroom apartment at Harland Court offers contemporary living in a convenient location. Finished to a high specification throughout, the property is suited to a range of buyers, whether it be those regularly commuting, first-time buyers, downsizers or even investors with an attractive gross yield of <8.0%.

Bury St Edmunds continues to grow in popularity, offering an excellent balance of professional opportunities and lifestyle appeal. The historic market town boasts a wide range of both independent and high-street amenities, including pubs, bars, restaurants, cafés, supermarkets, and comprehensive health and educational facilities, all contributing to its strong and enduring appeal.

The communal entrance is well-maintained courtesy of Rosetree Estates and supports both stairs and lift access leading to the second floor.

One allocated parking space can be found at Tamlyn House.
