SITUATION

The property enjoys a central location in the Cornish hamlet of Petherwin Gate approximately 1.5 miles from the village primary school. The ancient market town of Launceston lies around 8.5 miles away, offering a comprehensive range of shopping, educational and leisure facilities. The A30 dual carriageway is easily accessible, providing excellent links west towards Bodmin and Truro, and east towards Exeter and the M5 motorway. Quiet country lanes provide enjoyable hacking, whilst the network of public footpaths and bridleways, together with the nearby North Cornwall coast and the rugged landscapes of Bodmin Moor and Dartmoor, offer choices for walking, riding and outdoor pursuits.

DESCRIPTION

A spacious family home full of rustic charm and character, occupying prominent position in the heart of the village. Understood to have been constructed in the mid 1800's using traditional methods of its era including stone and cob construction, the property was later extended at the rear which showcasing and retaining much of its original character. Notable period features include the unusual beamed ceilings and an impressive inglenook fireplace, complete with its original clome oven and wood-burning stove. The property has undergone a range of significant home improvements including the replacement of both the main pitched roof and rear flat roof in 2023, an updated gas boiler and lined chimneys for both wood burning stoves.

The property is also equipped with mains gas central heating, with the boiler having been renewed by the current owners. This provides heating to radiators throughout the property, together with the domestic hot water.

ACCOMMODATION

A quaint covered porch at the front of the property offers a sheltered entrance with a small entrance hall leading directly into an impressive dining room. As one of two spacious reception rooms, both the dining room and sitting room showcase beautiful exposed beams, wood burners and windows overlooking the front gardens. The kitchen is fitted with painted units, an induction hob, electric oven and extractor, with space and plumbing for a dishwasher and a useful pantry. Windows overlook the rear garden from the kitchen which is adjacent to the dining room. At the rear of the house is a modern ground-floor shower room/WC and utility room, with plumbing for a washing machine and tumble dryer. Extending across much of the rear is a generous sun room enjoying views and access to the rear garden, with a pedestrian door providing access to the attached garage/workshop and store.

The first floor of the accommodation presents four double bedrooms, with the principal bedroom benefiting from direct access to the Jack and Jill bathroom, fitted with a panel bath and electric shower, wash basin and WC. The landing also provides hidden access to a small, skylit room with restricted headroom, currently used as a home office.

OUTSIDE

Outside, the mature front garden provides a good degree of privacy with a traditional and pretty approach via a small wooden gate and archway. There is off road parking to the side of the property and directly in front of the garage. This currently allows for 2 vehicles, with scope to use the garage space for additional parking subject to consents and if required. The generous, level rear garden features two patio seating areas, a useful shed and a newly installed timber shed/log store adjoining the side of the property. The garden is well established, with mature planting and a selection of fruit trees with enclosed boundaries suiting families and couples alike looking for peace and privacy.

SERVICES & ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Mains electricity, water and drainage. Mains gas fired central heating. Broadband availability: Ultrafast, Superfast and Standard ADSL, Mobile signal: voice and data available (Ofcom). Please note the agents have not inspected or tested these services. The property is sold subject to all local authority charges.

Planning permission has been granted under application number PA23/06887 for the removal of the existing garage and workshop and their replacement with a ground-floor bedroom and shower room/WC, offering an excellent opportunity to further enhance the accommodation.
