The Property

Built within the last two years and offered in 'show home' condition. A truly impressive 4 double bedroom residence with thoughtfully arranged light and airy accommodation, providing a high degree of versatility over its three floors, and being the centrepiece of a trio built by David Wilson Homes, within this already highly regarded north Abingdon landscaped development. Practical, contemporary and lifestyle elements combine to create a lovely sense of well-being, complimented by southerly rear garden and private driveway with comfortable two car standing.

The 4th bedroom (first floor) is currently, and very stylishly being used as an extremely comfortable lounge. The three additional double bedrooms all benefit from high-quality built-in wardrobes. There is study to the ground floor as well as a very functional utility cupboard, separate cloakroom and impressive, extremely well fitted and equipped kitchen area/living dining area, leading via French doors directly out on the southerly rear garden patio, which is ideal for alfresco dining. First floor bathroom, and en-suite 'jack and Jill' shower room serving both the second-floor bedrooms. Excellent specification throughout, balance of NHBC.
