

High Street, Llandrillo

£495,000

Set in the heart of the sought-after village of Llandrillo, on the edge of the stunning Berwyn mountain range, The Dudley Arms is an outstanding freehold village inn offering an excellent balance of character, comfort and commercial potential.

This highly regarded property combines the charm of a traditional country pub with impressive, well-appointed facilities throughout. The bar and restaurant areas provide a warm and welcoming atmosphere, while the catering facilities are well-equipped to support a food business. In addition, the property benefits from quality guest accommodation and a separate cottage, all finished to a high standard, offering multiple income streams.

The inn enjoys a strong trading position, with significant scope for growth thanks to its prime location in an increasingly popular tourist area. Llandrillo has seen a rise in visitor numbers in recent years, supported by nearby five-star camping, caravan and self-catering sites, as well as a variety of holiday cottages within easy reach.

Ideally positioned for access to some of North Wales' most popular destinations, including Llangollen, Bala and Snowdonia National Park, the property attracts walkers, cyclists and outdoor enthusiasts year-round. The nearby Berwyn Mountains and River Dee further enhance its appeal, offering a wealth of recreational activities in an area of outstanding natural beauty.

Overall, The Dudley Arms represents a superb opportunity to acquire a versatile village inn in a prime trading location, with excellent facilities and strong potential for success.
