IF YOU LIVED HERE...

Step inside and the reception room sets a calm, welcoming tone, with a bay window, wood flooring and a fireplace creating a natural focal point. The room is generously proportioned, with space for both relaxing and dining, and a soft, neutral finish that feels easy to settle into.

To the rear, the kitchen/diner stretches out beautifully, creating a bright and sociable space for everyday living. Sleek cabinetry, integrated appliances, an island and skylights give the room a considered, contemporary feel, while wide glazing opens directly onto the south-west facing garden. Outside, there's a neat mix of lawn and paved seating space, well suited to summer evenings and low-maintenance weekends.

Upstairs, there are two bedrooms, both finished in a calm, understated palette. The principal bedroom sits to the front, with two windows drawing in plenty of natural light, while the second bedroom would work well for guests, a nursery or home office.

The bathroom is spacious and smartly finished, with a bath, separate shower, WC and wash basin.

WHAT ELSE?

- Victoria Park is moments away, offering wide open green space, cafés, Sunday markets, lakeside walks and plenty of room to unwind.
- Well Street is nearby for local favourites including independent cafés, shops and useful day-to-day amenities.
- Hackney Wick, London Fields and Broadway Market are all within easy reach, putting some of East London's best food, drink and creative spots close by.

WORD FROM THE EXPERT...

"I feel right at home living in Hackney, even though I am originally from Greece. You can be yourself, wear what you like and always feel welcome. The multicultural spirit shines through in the cafés, restaurants, shops and bars. From specialty coffee and Michelin star dining to parks and art galleries, Hackney has something for everyone. Weekends at Victoria Park or Broadway Market are full of community energy, great food and local makers. The marshes are ideal for dog walks, and nearby you can stop by the Princess of Wales for a Sunday roast, Here East for brunch or Crate Brewery for pizza and a local beer. Homes range from Victorian and Georgian houses to red brick local authority blocks and modern developments with shared roof terraces. I have truly found my place in Hackney, and it holds a special spot in my heart".
