Bunkum Cottage - Westridge, Highclere

A picturesque two bedroom cottage located on the outskirts of the highly sought after village, Highclere, dating back to the early twentieth century that is located on a plot measuring in excess of three quarters of an acre, offering scenic views across the countryside. The property has also been recently renovated throughout and benefits from over three quarters an acre of land to the front of the property which helps to preserve these views. Other benefits include, oil-fired central heating, majority uPVC double glazing and a Klargester waste system. The ground floor comprises of sitting room, study, kitchen/breakfast room, utility room, cloakroom and a covered courtyard space. Upstairs, are two double bedrooms and a family bathroom. Externally, there is a small patio area adjoining the property. While to the front of the property the land opposite is designated for agricultural use and accessed via a five-bar gate. Highclere is conveniently located just south of the market town of Newbury with excellent road links nearby including the A34 and M4 motorway.
