Description

Entering in to the property from the communal entrance, you come in to the flat's entrance hall, or vestibule, providing the perfect space for hanging up coats and kicking off shoes. The main hallway provides access to Bedrooms One at Two, both of which are well-proportioned doubles, with Bedroom Two benefitting from an additional storage area.

The main bathroom of the property is well appointed, with quality fixtures and fittings, including an over-bath rainfall shower. Complimenting the exposed brickwork, the present owner has matched the colour scheme superbly, finishing the walls in a calming shade of green.

The modern kitchen, complete with dishwasher, four hob gas burner and breakfast bar has been excellently kept and with a double aspect in this room, light floods in. The industrial feel is ever-present in this area, with the original fly press.
