Vendors' comments: 'After many happy years here, this house has been much more than just a place to live - it has truly been our home. It has been the setting for family celebrations, quiet evenings, and countless memories that we will always treasure.

One of the things we have loved most is how welcoming the house feels. It is bright, spacious, and comfortable, with a layout that works beautifully for both everyday family life and entertaining friends. Whether enjoying a peaceful morning coffee, hosting family gatherings, or simply relaxing at the end of the day, the house has always felt warm and inviting. The garden has been another favourite feature, providing a lovely space to sit, unwind, and enjoy the changing seasons. It offers the perfect balance of privacy and outdoor living. Leaving a home filled with so many wonderful memories is never easy, but we are excited for another family to enjoy everything this house has to offer. We hope they will create as many happy memories here as we have.'

The entrance hall welcomes you into the house, there is a WC to the right with a modern white suite, small window and a radiator.
