Perched in an elevated position within beautifully maintained communal grounds, with views towards Lake Windermere and the Lakeland fells beyond, this superb first-floor apartment is offered with no onward chain and presents an excellent opportunity to update and personalise to suit individual tastes and requirements. The naturally bright and well-proportioned accommodation features a dual-aspect lounge/dining room with access to the kitchen, two generous double bedrooms, and a three-piece bathroom. Further benefits include a dedicated parking space and access to a communal cellar providing useful storage.
