A superb blend of period character and contemporary design, the property offers generous, light-filled accommodation ideally suited to modern family living, with excellent transport links and highly regarded local schools close by.

Arranged over three well-configured floors and extending to approximately 1,788 sq ft, the home has been meticulously maintained and enhanced, with a strong emphasis on natural light, flowing space and inviting interiors. From the elegant bay window to the exposed brickwork, the original Victorian character is complemented by stylish modern finishes and thoughtful design choices throughout.

The ground floor features a wonderfully spacious double reception room, beautifully arranged with warm timber flooring, period cornicing and a large bay window that floods the room with morning light. Ideal for both entertaining and relaxed everyday living, the room offers clearly defined seating zones while maintaining an open, airy feel. To the rear, the impressive extended kitchen/breakfast room forms the true heart of the home. Striking in both scale and design, it features sleek white cabinetry, timber worksurfaces, integrated appliances and a generous central island with breakfast seating. A dramatic run of overhead skylights and full-height glazing fills the space with sunshine, creating a bright, uplifting environment from morning through to evening. Distinct dining and seating areas make this a highly versatile family space, opening directly onto the south-west facing landscaped garden. Across the first and second floors, five well-proportioned bedrooms offer superb flexibility. The first floor provides three spacious bedrooms and a beautifully appointed family bathroom featuring both a freestanding bathtub and separate shower. The top floor offers two further bedrooms, including one with bespoke storage and elevated rooftop views, together with a contemporary second bathroom. Each room is bright, stylish, comfortable and highly adaptable as bedrooms, home offices or nurseries.
