Internally, the main house has an impressive 33ft open plan kitchen/living/dining room with quarry tiled flooring, beams and stairs leading up the first floor. In the sitting room area there is an attractive Inglenook style fireplace with herringbone brick detailing and an electric fire. The kitchen has a good range of fitted wall and base cupboards with a built in electric oven and 4 ring hob. A large utility room houses the oil fired boiler and offers useful storage space. On the first floor there are three bedrooms and a modern family bathroom with a bath and shower. The main bedroom features fitted wardrobes and an en suite bathroom. The attached annexe mirrors the main house with an open plan kitchen/living/dining room set alongside a double bedroom and en suite bathroom. Between the main house and the annexe there is 1970sqft of accommodation. Next to the annexe is a very useful workshop with light and power- which could be used as a garage for a small car.

The property has extensive private parking and is surrounded by mature, well-established gardens and a nature pond, creating a peaceful and private retreat. In addition, there are three substantial paddocks, offering excellent opportunities for equestrian use, hobby farming or those seeking a smallholding lifestyle. This unique and flexible home presents a rare opportunity for buyers to enjoy country living with space, privacy and still lots of potential.
