Richborough Road, London, NW2

Asking Price £650,000

Bringing to the market this beautifully presented two bedroom, two bathroom Victorian property, boasting circa 1,000 sq.ft of lateral living space, private access and a South-facing garden.

Set across the ground floor, the property combines original Victorian character with modern living, having been thoughtfully modernised and extended throughout. The accommodation features high ceilings, a bay-fronted window, two bathrooms and a contemporary kitchen leading through to a dining area. To the rear is a tranquil private South-facing garden, providing an excellent outdoor space. The property is sold with the whole freehold.

Richborough Road is a popular residential street, conveniently positioned for both West Hampstead and Cricklewood Broadway, with a wide selection of restaurants, bars and amenities nearby. Excellent transport links are also within easy reach, including Thameslink, the Jubilee Line and London Overground, providing convenient access across London and beyond.
