

Salcombe Way, Ruislip, HA4 6BA
£650,000

BRAND NEW HOME – NO UPPER CHAIN. Situated in a highly convenient location, Wade House is a contemporary two-bedroom detached home inspired by Scandinavian design and the modernist heritage of Ruislip's Metroland era.

The striking exterior combines larch cladding, crafted metalwork, and a handmade Accoya front door inset with a unique stained glass panel. Inside, thoughtful design and high-quality materials create bright, functional living spaces, with underfloor heating throughout, bespoke storage, and a spacious open-plan living area opening directly onto the landscaped south-facing garden.

The Douglas Fir kitchen features integrated Miele appliances and Silestone worktops, while large windows flood the home with natural light. Upstairs, vaulted ceilings, electrically operated Velux windows, built-in storage, and a stylish wet room with Lusso Stone fittings add to the home's distinctive appeal.
