Station Road | Darlington
£475,000

A truly exceptional and sympathetic conversion of a former Wesleyan Chapel, originally constructed in 1869, this remarkable home effortlessly blends striking period architecture with contemporary luxury to create a one-of-a-kind family residence.

Retaining an abundance of original character while embracing modern living, the property offers beautifully proportioned accommodation extending across two floors. At its heart is an awe-inspiring living room featuring a magnificent full-height vaulted ceiling and impressive minstrel's gallery, creating a spectacular space for both relaxing and entertaining. The beautifully appointed kitchen/breakfast room is fitted with a comprehensive range of quality units and integrated appliances, complemented by a separate formal dining room and a versatile study. Completing the ground floor is a generous double bedroom with its own en-suite shower room, ideal for guests or multi-generational living.

To the first floor, the galleried landing leads to four further well-proportioned bedrooms, two of which benefit from stylish en-suite facilities, together with a good sized family bathroom, offering flexible accommodation for growing families.

Externally, the property is approached via an attractive stone-flagged driveway providing ample off-road parking. To the rear, a private enclosed timber-decked garden has been thoughtfully designed to provide a low-maintenance outdoor entertaining space, perfect for enjoying warmer months. Useful store shed can also be located to the side of the home

Further enhancing this unique home is a hard-wired alarm and fire detection system, together with computer network points installed throughout the property.

Properties of this calibre and individuality rarely come to the market. An internal inspection is essential to fully appreciate the quality, character and impressive scale of accommodation on offer.

Location
