- Iconic Listed Timber Framed Building
- Formerly Highly Popular Tea Rooms
- Kitchen with Stainless Steel Fittings
- Busy Market Place Environment
- Town Centre Location
- Ground Floor Cafe 250 sq.ft
- First Floor Restaurant 430 sq.ft
- Freehold with Vacant Possession

Freehold tearoom premises situated within a busy trading area close to the Market Place in Newark town centre. The tearooms, following retirement of a previous owner, have been closed. During a 20 year ownership the tearooms were highly profitable and a focal point in Newark town centre. This iconic timber framed building is Grade II listed and offered for sale freehold with vacant position. Alternative uses under the Class E planning use will include financial services, professional services, medical or health services and office use.

The ground floor cafe provides 250 sq.ft plus a well fitted kitchen. The first floor restaurant provides 430 sq.ft approximately.

The property is situated close to the Old Post Office, a very popular inn and eating place with the Queens Head public house and various retail outlets within near vicinity. Queens Head Court is connected by an archway to Kirk Gate and the York stone paving leads through to the cobbled Georgian Newark Market Place.

Newark is a sizeable market town with a residential population of 25,000 approximately and a catchment area population of 113, 000. The town is placed centrally in the UK and has good access to the A1 and A46 trunk roads. Newark Northgate station has regular and frequent mainline services to London Kings Cross with journey times of just over 75 minutes.

This timber framed building is 16th century dated and restored in 1960. The "Jettied" front and bow window are particular features of the property. The following accommodation is provided:
