DESCRIPTION

Jasmine is a charming detached family home occupying an elevated position within the highly desirable village of Galmpton. Originally built in the early 20th Century, the property has been sympathetically extended and improved to create versatile family accommodation extending to approximately 1,813 sqft.

Enjoying a southerly aspect, the property benefits from excellent views across the village and surrounding countryside, while the substantial plot extends to approximately 0.265 acres. A particular feature is the level rear garden, providing excellent outdoor space for family life and entertaining. Further benefits include off-road parking, a garage and a range of energy-efficient features including photovoltaic panels and rainwater harvesting.

ACCOMMODATION

The accommodation is arranged over two storeys and offers a versatile layout well suited to modern family living. Across the ground floor there is underfloor heating throughout together with two substantial reception spaces. The principal sitting room is situated to the rear of the dwelling and enjoys a triple aspect, ensuring a light and welcoming environment while making full use of the attractive outlook over the garden. A fireplace provides a focal point for the room, while sliding doors open directly onto the decked terrace.

To the front of the property is a further reception room currently utilised as an informal sitting room, although it could equally serve as a fifth bedroom if required. The kitchen and dining room form the social hub of the home, featuring a range of fitted wall and base units alongside a central island providing additional workspace and storage. Integral appliances include two electric ovens and a gas hob, while the room offers ample space for family dining. A utility room is situated centrally within the dwelling, providing further practical storage and laundry space.
