Perfectly positioned for those seeking both tranquillity and a sense of community, this home places you within easy reach of local amenities, charming village walks, and leisure facilities.

Upon entering the property, a welcoming hallway provides access to all ground floor accommodation, along with the convenience of two generous storage cupboards and stairs rising to the first floor. The spacious living room is bathed in natural light thanks to two large picture windows. An inset gas fire and central ceiling light create a cosy yet bright space ideal for relaxing or entertaining.
