LOCATION - NEWPORT

The property occupies a highly convenient position on Chetwynd End, close to the heart of the historic market town of Newport. The town centre is within easy walking distance and provides an excellent range of everyday amenities, including independent shops, cafés, restaurants, public houses and professional services, together with supermarkets and leisure facilities. Newport is particularly well regarded for its excellent schools and attractive surrounding countryside, whilst the town also provides convenient road links towards Telford, Shrewsbury, Stafford and the wider West Midlands.

The combination of period character, beautifully presented accommodation, private gardens, parking and an exceptionally convenient position close to Newport town centre makes 27 Chetwynd End an appealing proposition for those seeking a characterful town property with excellent day-to-day accessibility.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

Halls are delighted to be instructed to sell No.27 Chetwynd End by private treaty.

A charming covered side entrance leads to the main entrance door, which opens into the Entrance Hall with attractive wooden flooring, coat hooks and staircase rising to the first floor. The property is ideally suited to professionals or those downsizing wanting to be closer to a town centre and have the ability to lock up and leave when away from the property.

The Front Reception Room, currently utilised as a dining room, is a particularly charming room with a feature open fireplace, sash windows to the front with attractive shutters, high ceiling and traditional picture rail.

Also accessed from the entrance hall is the Sitting Room, which again retains considerable period charm and features an open fireplace, side windows, wooden flooring and ornate coving to the ceiling. Beneath the staircase is a useful study area, together with access to the cellar.

From the sitting room, a door leads through to the Kitchen, which is fitted with an excellent range of base and wall-mounted cupboards complemented by slate work surfaces. There is a quarry-tiled floor, range-style cooker and traditional Belfast sink. A useful laundry cupboard provides plumbing for a washing machine with shelving above suitable for a tumble dryer, whilst an adjacent cupboard provides space for a fridge freezer.

An opening and doorway lead into the Breakfast/Garden Room, which provides a lovely link between the house and gardens. This attractive space has a part-glazed roof, tiled flooring, double doors opening onto the rear garden and a useful store cupboard.

The staircase rises from the entrance hall to the First Floor Landing, where there is a sash window to the side.

The Principal Bedroom is positioned to the rear of the property and benefits from fitted wardrobes together with steps down to an En-Suite Bathroom, comprising panelled bath, low flush W.C. and wash hand basin.

The Second Bedroom, situated to the front, is another characterful room with a range of fitted wardrobes, sash window with shutters to the front and a feature fireplace.

The Third Bedroom is a single bedroom positioned to the side and is located adjacent to the spacious Shower Room, which is fitted with a large corner shower enclosure, vanity unit incorporating wash hand basin and W.C., together with inset spotlights and heated towel radiator.

The property benefits from gas-fired central heating.

OUTSIDE & GARDENS

Externally, the property is approached from Chetwynd End, with a driveway running down the side of the property to a private parking area suitable for two vehicles. There is also a useful log store to the side.

The main entrance is positioned to the side of the house, with a particularly attractive covered pathway leading towards the front garden, which has been thoughtfully landscaped with a flag-paved seating area, gravelled sections, established flower beds and mature hedging, creating a pleasant degree of privacy.

The rear garden is accessed directly from the Breakfast/Garden Room, or alternatively via a gate and pathway which leads around to the parking area. The garden provides an attractive and manageable outside space which complements the character and appeal of the property.

DIRECTIONS

From Whitchurch drive South on the A41 for about 18 miles and turn right sign posted Edgmond. Follow the road known as Chester Road and after about a mile it becomes Chetwynd Road. Go over the small roundabout into Newport and the property is located on the left hand side and the access is shared with the Castle House school.
