This beautifully presented mid-terrace house offers spacious and versatile accommodation arranged over three floors, combining character features with modern finishes to create an impressive home in the heart of Whitehaven. High ceilings enhance the wonderful sense of space throughout. The ground floor features a stylish modern kitchen/diner, ideal for everyday dining and entertaining, together with the convenience of a separate WC and shower room. A good-sized lounge provides a comfortable and welcoming space in which to relax. The upper floors continue to impress, with bedroom two situated on the first floor, while the superb master bedroom benefits from its own walk-in wardrobe, providing excellent storage. A separate bathroom/WC completes the accommodation. Outside, the property enjoys an attractive rear courtyard garden, offering a pleasant, low-maintenance space for outdoor seating and entertaining.

Church Street enjoys an extremely convenient central Whitehaven location, with the town's shops, cafés, bars and restaurants close at hand. The picturesque Whitehaven Marina is also within easy reach, while Whitehaven railway station provides useful transport connections. Local supermarkets, schools and everyday amenities are all readily accessible, making this an excellent choice for buyers seeking character, space and the convenience of town-centre living.
