Some More Information

Set back behind a high laurel hedge the property is accessed via a pathway, leading to the entrance door and into the entrance hall where stairs lead to the first floor and a door enters the sitting room.

The sitting room has a window to the front elevation, sliding patio doors leading to the rear garden central fireplace and further door leading to the dining area. The dining area is currently used as a work from home space, and has window to the side elevation, door to inner hallway and opening leading to the kitchen. The kitchen is presented in a range of eye and base level cupboards and drawers beneath rolled edge work surfaces with window overlooking the rear garden and door leading to the conservatory style utility room which has a further door leading out to the rear garden.

Leading back through the inner hallway doors give access to two ground floor bedrooms, one of which is utilised as a dining room and has windows to the front and side elevations whilst the second bedroom has a window to the front. Completing the ground floor accommodation is the family bathroom, comprising panel enclosed bath with shower over low level w.c. and pedestal wash hand basin the room is fully tiled and has a window to the side elevation.

To the first floor there are two further bedrooms, with bedroom one having a window to the front elevation and velux roof light to the side. Across the landing you'll find bedroom four with a velux roof light to the side and further door leading to a dressing area with a window to the rear and further door leads to the loft storage cupboard. Accessed back from the central landing is the first floor shower room which has a fully tiled shower enclosure, low level w.c. wash hand basin and velux roof light to the side elevation.

Externally

Situated on a corner plot the property benefits from two driveways and a wraparound garden. The first driveway provides off street parking for two vehicles and leads to a sectional concrete garage (with power) with up and over door and gated access to the rear garden. To the front of the property there is a second driveway with is accessed via side hung timber gates and provides space for a boat, trailer or motorhome parking. An access leads through the established laurel hedge gives entry to the front and side garden where a pathway leads around the front to access the rear garden.

The rear garden is mainly laid to lawn, with a covered patio seating area to the immediate rear of the property. Enclosed by wood panel fences and established hedge. There are a couple of timber sheds and a summer house set upon an area of raised decking.

Location

Firs Road is well positioned close to the centre of the village, placing everyday amenities within easy reach. West Mersea offers a good range of independent shops, cafés, restaurants/pubs, a supermarket, medical facilities and well regarded local schooling and childcare, making it a practical location for families as well as those looking to enjoy coastal living.

West Mersea is particularly well known for its thriving sailing and boating community with an annual regatta, yacht clubs and waterfront forming a central part of village life. The coastline, beaches and coastal walks make the area especially appealing, while the village is also famous for its seafood restaurants and relaxed atmosphere.

Colchester city centre is approximately 9 miles away, offering a wider range of shopping, leisure facilities and mainline rail services to London Liverpool Street.
