Set within the leafy tranquillity of the prestigious Nonsuch Estate, this elegant Art Deco period residence immediately captivates with its timeless architecture and beautifully balanced proportions. Offering an impressive 2,100 sq ft of living space arranged over three floors, the home sits gracefully within meticulously maintained gardens that frame it with colour, privacy and a sense of calm.

From the moment you approach this beautiful home, its original Art Deco heritage makes an immediate impression. The façade hints at the charm within, and stepping through the front door you are welcomed by a grand, light filled entrance hall where the original staircase creates a striking first impression. It is a space that instantly conveys the warmth, character and generosity of scale that define this residence.

The ground floor unfolds through wonderfully proportioned reception rooms. To the rear, the sitting room feels calm and serene, framed by picture perfect views across the garden and offering direct access to the sun terrace. A feature fireplace anchors the room, adding a sense of timeless comfort.

The formal dining room, bathed in natural light from its elegant bay window, provides the perfect setting for gatherings with family and friends. This leads seamlessly into the beautifully appointed kitchen, where classic styling meets practical design. An adjoining breakfast room offers a relaxed space with doors opening onto the terrace, ideal for al fresco dining and summer entertaining.

Upstairs, the generous sense of space continues. A broad landing leads to three double bedrooms, each with its own charm, with the principal bedroom enjoying a private terrace balcony overlooking the rear garden. Two spacious family bathrooms complete this level. Rising again, the returning staircase reveals an impressive loft room bathed in natural light from skylight windows. With walk-in eaves storage and a peaceful, elevated outlook, it offers a superb retreat for guests, teenagers or those seeking a quiet workspace, with clear potential for further enhancement if desired.

The garden is a true sanctuary. Fully enclosed and beautifully maintained, it offers a tapestry of colour, texture and tranquillity, an inspiring haven for keen gardeners and a delightful backdrop for outdoor living. A further terrace to the rear, along with discreet storage and mature boundaries, ensures both practicality and privacy.

Perfectly positioned for families, the property lies within easy reach of Nonsuch High School, Ewell Castle and Rosebery School, while Ewell East Station is just a short stroll away, making this an exceptional setting for both lifestyle and convenience.

The highly desirable nearby Ewell Village has a rich background dating back to the Bronze age and at the end of the middle ages King Henry VIII established Nonsuch Palace (now Nonsuch Park) in 1538.

Popular Cheam Village is within close proximity with its excellent selection of shops and restaurants. There is a fantastic range of popular local schools and of course access to Ewell East station which links to London Victoria & London Bridge taking approximately 40 minutes & Ewell West station providing easy access to London Waterloo via Wimbledon which typically takes approximately 30 minutes.

Early viewing highly recommended. Sole agent.
