A rare chance to purchase a beautifully refurbished, turn-key home in the heart of Nash Mills.

Ground floor

A spacious hall enters onto a wood panelled reception room, complete with bespoke built in storage. Large French doors, flooding the room with light, open to a sunny garden, with sizeable patio. The shaker style kitchen is fitted with a range of contemporary appliances, finished with elegant white worktops that create a bright and refined finish. A stylish guest WC with porcelain tiling continues the designed theme.

First floor

The principal bedroom, partially wood panelled, is elegant and stylish, and very bright owing to two large windows. Two further bedrooms continue the theme, and a beautifully styled bathroom features a bath, low-level WC and a classic wash hand basin. Aged brass fittings and light tiled walls and floors in neutral tones, add warmth to the space.

The location

The local area of Apsley is an outer district of Hemel Hempstead and is still a busy commercial centre. The Victorian shops that grew up when it was a mill town now house newsagents, public houses, restaurants, and a range of small businesses. The former mill sites are taken up with supermarkets, retail parks and offices. Housing developments combining the canal side location with the ease of access to Apsley railway station (offering direct access to London Euston) have been very successful. Situated 24 miles to the northwest of London and conveniently served by the M1 and M25 motorways, Hemel Hempstead has quickly grown in popularity in the last few years. We have seen more migration from the London suburbs, largely due to its fantastic commuter links including the London Northwestern Railway Overground train to London Euston taking only 35 minutes. Both London Luton and London Heathrow airports are easily accessible via the M1 and M25 respectively.
