Description

From an elegant period portico, the entrance hallway leads to three reception rooms, all boasting high ceilings, with steps down towards the kitchen, passing an under-stairs cupboard, a guest toilet & cloakroom. The two front rooms each enjoy bay windows & one has a feature fireplace. The rear, grand reception room, with a glazed drinks serving hatch, overlooks the garden & has doors to an older style conservatory. The kitchen overlooks the garden & provides ample storage with space for a cooker, fridge/freezer & separate breakfast/dining area. From here, doors lead to the garden & passage, with built-in larder, & onto a reception room & the laundry room, with space & plumbing for appliances, as well as direct garden access.

A feature split-level staircase leads to 6 bedrooms, one to the rear of the property, four & the loft hatch off the main landing & the sixth on an upper floor. A second landing leads to a family bathroom, a toilet & a further family shower room. Each bedroom is double in size, 3 have various style bay windows & the upper room overlooks the garden & has eves storage.

Outside, the well-proportioned garden is mainly laid to lawn with a patio adjoining the house. A pathway leads between mature trees, shrubs & hedges to a secret garden to the rear, all lovingly maintained. An oil tank serves the property (gas mains are in place but capped) adjacent to two storage sheds, whilst mature hedging provides a welcome privacy. Rear garage access, via the conservatory & a gated side path lead to the front garden. Traditional in style, with a central path, flanked by lawn to each side & softened by mature hedging. There is a driveway for two vehicles leading to the spacious, vaulted single garage.

Situation

This sought after & established residential road is within easy walking distance of excellent local shops, bus routes & Ashtead's mainline station with services to London Bridge, Waterloo & Victoria.

Highly regarded local schools, both state & private, can be found within walking distance including the 'Outstanding' Barnett Wood Infant School, St Andrew's and The City of London Freeman's School.

The area abounds in a wealth of open unspoilt countryside close to hand, much of which is National Trust & Green Belt which in turn provides open spaces for country walks, horse riding & cycling.

Ashtead Village shops & amenities are within walking distance including the ever-popular M & S Food Hall alongside a wide range of independent, traditional retailers. Both the larger towns of Epsom & Leatherhead are a few miles distant providing more comprehensive shopping facilities. There is also a wide choice of recreational pursuits to suit all ages nearby including Ashtead's Squash, Tennis & Cricket clubs, complemented by the RAC club at Woodcote Park and Tyrrells Wood Golf Club, to name but a few.
