Location

Eydon is a village and civil parish in West Northamptonshire, located about 8 miles northeast of Banbury and roughly 10 miles southeast of Daventry.

The parish is bordered by the River Cherwell to the west, a tributary stream to the south, and fields to the north and east. The Church of St Nicholas, a Grade II* listed building, showcases notable English Romanesque architecture. The village also features a 17th-century public house, the Royal Oak.

Eydon is approximately 11 miles from Banbury railway station and around 7 miles from Junction 11 of the M40. For everyday shopping, the nearby village of Woodford Halse is just 1.5 miles away.

Ground Floor

The property is entered through a half-glazed solid door into a porch with glazed French doors leading into the main hallway. The hallway features laminate flooring, two radiators, a UPVC double glazed side window, built-in airing and storage cupboards, and an electric loft hatch with pull-down ladder and automatic lighting. Panel doors provide access to the connecting rooms.

The sitting room enjoys plenty of natural light from a UPVC double glazed front window and French doors to the side aspect. A cast iron wood burner, quarry tiled hearth, and stone fireplace and a radiator.

The dining room benefits from dual aspect UPVC double glazed windows to the front and side, laminate flooring, radiator, and an open fireplace with quarry tiled and brick surround. A glazed door leads through to the kitchen. The kitchen is fitted with a range of wall and base units with roll-top work surfaces, incorporating a built-in oven, electric hob with extractor canopy over, and stainless-steel sink. There is plumbing for a washing machine, tiled flooring and splashback areas, radiator, UPVC double glazed windows to the side and rear, and a half-glazed side access door. A panel door leads back into the hallway.

There are three bedrooms in total. Bedroom One features a UPVC double glazed side window and radiator. Bedroom Two also has a side aspect UPVC double glazed window and radiator. Bedroom Three benefits from dual aspect UPVC double glazed windows, exposed wooden flooring, radiator, and was formerly utilised as a workshop, offering flexibility for a variety of uses.

The bathroom comprises a white three-piece suite including a low-level WC, wall-mounted wash hand basin with storage cupboard beneath, and P-shaped panelled bath with electric shower over and curved glass screen. Additional features include a heated towel rail, tiled flooring and splashback areas, and obscure UPVC double glazed rear windows.

Outside

Approached via double wrought iron gates opening onto a gravel driveway providing ample off-road parking and access to a larger-than-average detached stone garage with pitched roof, side pedestrian door, and double timber opening doors.

The front garden is mainly laid to lawn with a variety of established shrubs, plants, and trees, together with a greenhouse and hedged boundaries. Steps lead to the side pedestrian access and main entrance. The rear garden is predominantly laid to lawn and offers excellent potential for landscaping and personalisation. Additional external features include an oil tank, oil-fired boiler, and outside tap.
