GUIDE PRICE £360,000

This substantially extended cottage occupies a good-sized plot with garage and off-street parking and enjoys a convenient location between Malton and York. Built as a railway worker's house in the late-1800s, during the current owner's tenure, the original cottage was completely renovated and a large two-storey extension added to the side, creating a deceptively spacious home of almost 1,200sq.ft.

The cottage now benefits from oil-fired central heating, uPvc double-glazed windows and doors and is immaculately presented throughout. Its accommodation is arranged over two floors and comprises entrance porch, kitchen, dining room, guest cloakroom, study and sitting room with wood burning stove. On the first floor is a master bedroom with en-suite shower room, two further double bedrooms and a large house bathroom.

The property enjoys a larger than average garden which is securely enclosed, wrapping around two sides of the cottage, and there is a courtyard to the front with a useful brick-built outhouse. The main section of garden features a good-sized lawn, shrub borders, timber deck, greenhouse, timber garden shed and productive vegetable patch. Additionally, there is parking for several cars, plus a single garage.

Barton Hill is a small hamlet located between the villages of Whitwell on the Hill and Barton le Willows. It lies a little way off the A64, allowing for quick and easy access to York, Malton and the wider region.
