Beautiful two bedroom split-level apartment set within a handsome Victorian school conversion close to Victoria Park.

Recently redecorated and improved throughout, this unique apartment is situated on the second and third floors of this imposing building which is within a secure, gated development with a communal roof terrace. Allocated off-street parking for one car is also included.

Located in trendy Bethnal Green, the property is within easy reach of Bethnal Green and Mile End underground stations, is within touching distance of the ever-popular Victoria Park and benefits from the local amenities of Roman Road.

The apartment itself features a wonderfully spacious reception with views over the city skyline, a modern fitted kitchen, a large master bedroom, guest bedroom / study and a gorgeous bathroom. There is plenty of storage throughout and the high ceilings and period features really add to the ambience and aesthetic.

Perfect for a single professional or professional couple requiring work-from-home space, this must-see property is offered unfurnished and is available from 14th September 2026.
