ABOUT

A spacious apartment within West Point, a very well-established development in a central location. The property benefits from a spacious open plan living area with feature box-window and additional feature box-window to the master bedroom as well as very rarely found additional storage access from the lift lobby.

West Point is a conversion of a former office building and benefits from a concierge and lift access to all floors as well as shops, restaurants, bars, and cafés to the ground floor level. There are further amenities in the immediate area within the Central Square development next door.
