Upper Richmond Road London SW15

Just moments from Barnes Station, the Roehampton Club and wide stretches of green open space, this beautifully presented three/four-bedroom townhouse offers an inviting balance of style, comfort and day to day convenience. The current owners have completely renovated the property back to brick, working closely with an interior designer to create a modern, cohesive home with thoughtful touches throughout. Off-street parking adds to the practicality of the location and makes coming and going effortless.

Stepping inside, you're greeted by a bright and generously sized ground-floor reception room. Filled with natural light, it feels instantly welcoming and opens directly onto the rear garden perfect for relaxed evenings, entertaining or simply enjoying a quiet moment outdoors. A smartly finished cloakroom completes this level.

Upstairs, the first floor hosts a well designed fitted kitchen and dining area, offering plenty of storage, quality appliances and an easy sociable layout ideal for family life or casual get togethers. Also on this floor is a spacious double bedroom with excellent built in wardrobes, served by a sleek three piece shower room.

The top floor offers two further double bedrooms, both with great storage. The principal bedroom enjoys its own stylish en-suite, while a modern three piece bathroom serves the second bedroom providing comfort and privacy for families, guests or flexible living arrangements.

Every space in this home reflects care and attention, from the materials chosen to the overall design flow, resulting in a true turnkey property ready to be enjoyed from day one. With generous accommodation, off-street parking, and a prime position close to transport links, green spaces and respected local schools, this is a rare opportunity to secure a beautifully finished home in one of South West London's most sought-after neighbourhoods.
