

Oakhurst Close, Ingleby Barwick

Asking Price £340,000

This especially impressive, and deceptively spacious property offers flexible accommodation, that could easily suit those looking for a bungalow, whilst also delivering an additional first floor double bedroom, and stylish four-piece suite bathroom.

Enjoying a lovely, generous plot, with lengthy side drive, detached garage, rear garden laid to patio with summer house, and attractive front and side gardens which are mainly lawned, with established shrubs and hedged boundaries.

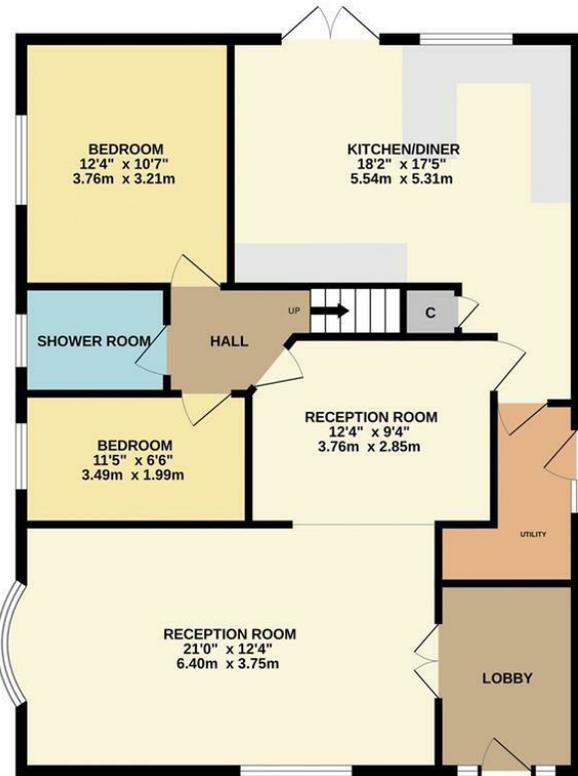

Very much updated and significantly modernised, a stylish replaced kitchen, fully replaced double glazing, a replaced heating system and refitted bathrooms, are just a few of the stand-out features. Briefly, the large ground floor comprises a fabulous entrance lobby, large living room with recently installed marble fireplace and gas fire, open-plan dining room and both with oak flooring, superb open-plan kitchen/diner, with utility off, inner hall, two bedrooms and a modern shower room.

Stairs from the inner hall approach a light and airy landing, accessing the stunning family bathroom and a further double bedroom which enjoys fitted robes and a 'French' door overlooking a 'Juliet' balcony onto the side gardens. The first floor bedroom also offers easy access to the generous eave storage, and loft above via a retractable ladder. Ingleby Homes recommended.
