

Dawson Road, NW2

Guide Price £1,400,000

 4  2  2

Guide Price: £1,400,000 to £1,500,000

This substantial four double bedroom semi-detached Art Deco house offers approximately 2,170 sq. ft. of exceptionally well-proportioned accommodation, arranged across three floors and designed to work effortlessly for modern family life.

Set behind a generous driveway with off-street parking for up to three cars, the house occupies a wide plot and retains attractive original Art Deco features, including characterful bay windows and excellent ceiling heights. Side access leads directly to the rear garden, adding further practicality for families, bicycles and outdoor entertaining.

Key Features

- Guide Price: £1,400,000 to £1,500,000
- Four double bedrooms, two bathrooms and a study
- Semi detached freehold house on three levels
- Southwest facing private garden with an outhouse creating a versatile private space
- Off street parking for potentially three cars
- Three reception rooms and a large open plan kitchen and dining area
- Moments from Gladstone Park
- Excellent choice of schools and nurseries nearby
- Willesden Green (Zone 2) provides Jubilee line services into Central London and Cricklewood Thameslink are walking distance
- Quiet neighbourhood, perfect for families

