16 De Mowbray Court, Thirsk, YO7 1ST

Located in a small Sowerby development for residents aged 55 and over, this ground floor apartment provides single-level living with a bright, south-facing aspect. With reasonable service charges and a friendly community, it's a practical option for those downsizing or seeking a sensibly priced home.

The Property

Situated in De Mowbray Court, a small and established development in the heart of Sowerby, this ground floor apartment is designed for residents aged 55 and over. Offering all accommodation on one level, it provides a practical option for those wishing to downsize or move into a low-maintenance home with a sense of community.

The property is set in a south-facing position, giving the main living space plenty of natural light throughout the day. On entering, you step into the open-plan living room and kitchen, where there is space for both a seating area and a small dining table. The kitchen is fitted with a range of base units, good worktop space, and room for appliances, making it functional and easy to maintain.

The double bedroom is located just off the living area and leads into the shower room. This is fitted with a step-in cubicle, WC, and wash hand basin. The home also benefits from gas central heating.

De Mowbray Court is known for its reasonable service charges and welcoming community of residents. Its location in Sowerby means local shops, amenities, and Thirsk town centre are all close by, while the small scale of the development ensures a quieter environment than many larger schemes.

There is allocated parking for one vehicle
