This extended four bedroom semi detached home on Handsacre Close offers a flexible layout, with a ground floor bedroom and adjoining shower room alongside three further bedrooms and a family bathroom upstairs. A separate lounge with a wood burning stove provides a cosy retreat, while the modern fitted kitchen opens into dining and sitting space with French doors leading onto the garden decking. Outside, a broad driveway provides off road parking, and the enclosed rear garden offers several areas for relaxing and entertaining. An insulated garden cabin, currently arranged as a salon and supplied with power, water and waste connections, adds a useful workspace separate from the house.
