Location:

The property is located within the new eco-development at West Carclaze Garden Village, set amongst St Austell's renowned China Clay Trails and lakes, which are quite literally on the doorstep. Sky Primary School is located within the village, and everyday amenities are conveniently close at hand.

A range of beautiful coastal destinations, including Carlyon Bay, Duporth, Par and the historic port of Charlestown, are all within a 10–15 minute drive. The Eden Project is just five minutes away, while Knightor Winery is even closer.

The popular destinations of Padstow, Newquay, Wadebridge and Truro can all be reached within around 30 minutes, with Fowey, Mevagissey, Lostwithiel and The Lost Gardens of Heligan approximately 20 minutes away.

Directions:

From St Austell, proceed along the A391 towards Penwithick, passing St Austell Printing on your right and the iconic Sky Tip landmark on your left. At the roundabout, take the exit signposted for Penwithick/Carludon/Eden Project and continue into the new West Carclaze Garden Village development. From Carbis Road, take the first right onto Penn Street, followed by a further right into Burthy Close, where a board will be erected for easy identification of the property.
