🏠 EPC Rating E

A beautifully presented, detached, Grade II Listed, period bungalow with allocated parking for two cars, two useful stores and wonderful communal gardens, which forms part of an impressive development, tucked away in the popular village of Semington, close to the towns of Trowbridge and Melksham. NO ONWARD CHAIN

St Georges Court originally dates back to the late 1830's and was designed by renowned architect H.E. Kendall. It was originally built as a workhouse and then transitioned into St George's Hospital. In the early 2000s it underwent a sympathetic restoration transforming the building into residential homes.

The property offers excellent accommodation arranged over one floor comprising; entrance hall, good sized, dual aspect, reception room with feature fireplace, superb kitchen/breakfast room with modern units, large principle bedroom with en suite shower room, further double bedroom with built in wardrobes and a bathroom with white suite.

Externally; there are beautiful communal grounds and gardens which surround the property. Two useful storage rooms.

Two allocated parking spaces, situated in the communal car park nearby.

Situation

St Georges Court occupies a lovely position just off the High Street of the popular village of Semington. The village itself has an excellent primary school, church and village hall with bar and skittle alley. The property has fantastic access to open countryside walks as well as strolls along the famous Kennet and Avon Canal. The nearby county town of Trowbridge is only four miles away and offers three secondary schools, shopping centres, two leisure centres, a train station, whilst the world heritage city of Bath is only 15 miles away and offers more comprehensive facilities. There are excellent private schools including King Edwards, Prior Park and Monkton Combe in Bath, and the well respected Daunstey's School in West Lavington. The mainline train stations of Westbury (7 miles) and Chippenham (10 miles) offer links to London Paddington.
