"This is our first ever home. We wanted to have a big house with many bedrooms and a private garden to start a family. We were drawn to the area for its proximity to green areas, Bath and its country side, while still being in Bristol. The views from the top bedroom is what sold the house for us. On a clear morning or evening, we can nearly touch hot air balloons heading to the nearby school ground for their landing. We built the garden from scratch from exotic and rare plants, it's a peaceful haven in the summer."
