Description

Built in 1933 as the Rectory for St. Mary's Church, this highly attractive detached home is set on a mature plot in an established and sought after residential area. Enlarged and much improved by successive owners, many of the original features including fireplaces, doors and horizontal friezes have been retained.

Set back from the road with screening high hedging, the original heavy front door is approached via a flint facing part enclosed porch. The spacious reception hall includes a beautiful original fireplace, friezes, part panelled walls and fitted bookshelves. The sitting room is well proportioned and has part panelled walls, an attractive original fireplace and makes for an excellent formal entertaining space. Attractive glazed double doors open into the formal dining room which is attractively decorated, again with part panelled walls and overlooks the rear garden.

The hub of the home is the open plan kitchen/breakfast room/orangery which features a luxurious hand made kitchen by Charnay of Oxshott with extensive base cabinets and eye level cupboards (some part glazed with integral lighting), granite working surfaces, extensive integrated/fitted appliances and a matching island unit which incorporates the breakfast bar. The space naturally flows with a step down into the orangery which provides for a lovely bright space with double doors leading out onto the rear garden. The T.V./family room is a superb space; great on winter evening and features a log burning stove and vaulted ceiling.

The utility room is spacious with butler sink and extensive storage space, door to 2nd W.C., personal door through to garage and door to the outside.

The double garage benefits from eaves storage and there are two electric remote controlled up and over doors.
