Plymouth

Plymouth, Britain's Ocean City, is one of Europe's most vibrant waterfront cities. Located in one of the most beautiful locations imaginable, Plymouth is sandwiched between the incredible South West coastline and the wild beauty of Dartmoor National Park. Plymouth is 37 miles south-west of Exeter and 190 miles west-south-west of London, between the mouths of the rivers Plym to the east and Tamar to the west where they join Plymouth Sound to form the boundary with Cornwall, it is also home to one of the most natural harbours in the world. To the North of Plymouth is Dartmoor National Park, extending to over 300 square miles, which provides excellent recreational facilities.

The city is home to more than 260,000 people, making it the 30th most populated city in the United Kingdom and the second-largest city in the South West, after Bristol and has a full range of shopping, educational and sporting facilities. There is mainline train service to London (Paddington) and to Penzance in West Cornwall. There's everything that you would expect to find in a cool, cultural city, with great shopping, arts and entertainment. But there's also hundreds of years of history to uncover, from Sir Francis Drake and the Spanish Armada to the Mayflower sailing in 1620, to a city rebuilt following the Blitz during World War II. With easy access to Exeter and its International Airport and a mainline train station giving direct access to London and a ferry port offering sea crossings to both France and Spain.

Plymouth is governed locally by Plymouth City Council and is represented nationally by three MPs. Plymouth's economy remains strongly influenced by shipbuilding and seafaring including ferry links to Brittany and Spain, but has tended toward a university economy since the early 2000's. It has the largest operational naval base in Western Europe – HMNB Devonport.

Crownhill

Location is a huge bonus for this wonderful property, being just a few minutes' walk from a plethora of local amenities in Crownhill Village including local convenience stores, take-away restaurants, launderette and The Tamar public house. Many regular local bus services operate close to the property along Crownhill Road and Tavistock Road giving access into Plymouth City Centre, Derriford Hospital and many other locations across the city. Crownhill is a highly regarded area found just north of the A38 dual carriageway which runs through Plymouth and allows easy access to Exeter and further to the North and into Cornwall via the Tamar Bridge. The property is also within the catchment areas for a good primary and secondary school, with Widey Court Primary School and Sir John Hunt Community Sports College.

More Property Information

The property boasts two good-sized bedrooms, both light and airy, offering a comfortable retreat at the end of the day. The sleek modern fitted shower room is both stylish and functional, catering to your daily needs with ease.

Step outside to discover a private rear courtyard garden, a delightful suntrap perfect for enjoying the outdoors, whether for relaxation or entertaining guests. Additionally, the property includes an allocated off-road parking space, a valuable feature in this popular area.

With no onward chain, this lovely cottage is ready for you to move in and make it your own. Don't miss the opportunity to view this delightful home in a fantastic location.
