THE PROPERTY

Rarely does a cottage of this nature come to the open market in East Devon. This stunning period cottage offers everything that a buyer could wish for, from excellent room sizes to impressive character features this unique property covers all the bases. At the turn of the century Harveys underwent an extensive refurbishment programme as well as a two-storey extension being added. The extension seamlessly blends into the original stone facade and has transformed the accommodation into a home fit for its surroundings. The cottage offers good ceiling highs along with all principal rooms enjoying a dual aspect with plenty of natural light and delightful views over the gardens and surrounding countryside. The outside is as equally impressive with gorgeous gardens and plenty of parking.

ACCOMMODATION

Following the extensive renovation works the cottage was reconfigured with the main entrance to the property being set off the rear. This allowed the owners to create a practical tiled entrance porch which in turn leads into the entrance hallway. This makes the very most of the main reception room, with this being the original part of the cottage where you will find the inglenook fireplace, along with the original beamed ceiling and flagstones. The spacious kitchen features a comprehensive range of oak fronted units with integrated appliances and an adjoining utility room proving further storage and an additional sink unit. To the rear of the cottage is the formal dining room with fitted bookcases. Both reception rooms feature double doors leading out to the gardens. To the first floor are three double bedrooms and shower room. The master bedroom, with beamed ceiling has a full bathroom suite.

OUTSIDE

From the lane side the cottage is flanked with low stone walling with a paved driveway and pathway leading through to the rear garden. A large paved terrace adjoins the rear elevation and provides a pleasant, sheltered seating area before steps lead up to the lawned gardens. The gardens are a beautiful feature to this home where you will find an abundance of fine specimens offering year-round interest along with an excellent selection of roses and mature trees. A small stream runs through the garden and down past the northern elevation of the cottage to a wildlife pond. In total the gardens and grounds measure in the region of 0.27 acres.

SITUATION

The property is set along the lane side running through the hamlet of Alston, an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The surrounding rolling East Devon countryside offers a range of rural activities with footpaths and bridleways in abundance. The nearby village of Chardstock has an inn, primary school and village shop/post office. The market town of Axminster is about 4 miles away and offers a good range of amenities and services.

The Jurassic Coast World Heritage Site and the nearby resort of Lyme Regis boasts its famous Cobb Harbour, sandy beaches and an excellent selection of restaurants, hotels and shops. The larger centres of Taunton and Exeter (with its regional airport) are within easy reach. Whilst surrounded by beautiful and unspoilt countryside the property is readily accessible by both road and rail. There is easy access to the M3 and M5 motorways via the A30/A303 dual carriageway. Axminster offers a mainline railway service to London Waterloo. (2 hours and 40 minutes)

SPORTING
