Property Description

This property is an extended early Edwardian period terrace with 3 double bedrooms and large Bathroom having been extended previously into the loft space in 2018. The house is charming retaining many period features including fireplaces, cornicing, coving and plasterwork as well as the gated forecourted front area. The ground floor accommodation has been skillfully adapted over the years to retain the hallway and bay fronted front reception room but the dining area has been opened through to the kitchen to allow a seamless flow to both rooms and adding better light to this superb area to entertain and ideal for everyday family life.

Beyond the kitchen the former outbuildings were adapted and signed off in 2016 to form a utility room and downstairs wc. The first floor has 2 double bedrooms with both having exposed timber floors, the main bedroom at the front of the house has 2 windows allowing plenty of light into this spacious room. The impressive bathroom includes a feature freestanding bath as well as a separate shower cubicle and the loft conversion provides another double bed space with skylight windows to front and rear.

Outside there is a paved pathway accessed from both the dining room and utility room leading from the house to a gravelled area behind and then a paved and fenced west facing rear garden with a summer house. The property is double galzed and has gas central heating.
