

Rowood Drive,
Solihull,
B92 9NQ

£425,000

Positioned on the desirable Rowood Drive in Solihull, this well-presented three-bedroom family home has been thoughtfully extended by its current owners to create a particularly lovely kitchen and dining space, ideal for both everyday family life and entertaining.

The welcoming sitting room features a charming fireplace and window overlooking the front elevation, creating a warm and inviting first impression. To the rear, the extended kitchen diner forms the real heart of the home, with a generous layout, well-appointed kitchen and lovely views over the garden. A useful laundry room and guest cloakroom add further practicality.

There are three well-proportioned bedrooms, complemented by a modern family bathroom.

Outside, the raised garden has been thoughtfully designed to make the most of the available space, with defined seating areas providing a choice of places to relax and entertain. A patio is conveniently accessed directly from the house, creating an easy flow between the kitchen diner and garden. To the front, a driveway provides useful off-road parking and access to the integrated garage.

A much-loved home in a sought-after Solihull location, offering well-planned accommodation, a superb extended kitchen diner and a garden that is both attractive and highly functional.

Location

Rowood Drive is a popular residential location within Solihull, ideally placed for families seeking everyday convenience. The area is well served by a selection of local schools, with shops and amenities close by, whilst Solihull town centre is within easy reach for a wider choice of shopping, dining and leisure facilities.

The location is also well connected for commuters, with Solihull railway station approximately 1.5 miles away and excellent road links providing access to Birmingham, the M42 and the wider Midlands. Birmingham International Airport and the NEC are also readily accessible, making this a particularly convenient setting for both family life and commuting.
