The Property

Rosewood House is a handsome detached period home, proudly marking a prominent position on the rural edge of Hullavington. This Grade II listed property, thought to date back to around 1750, boasts a beautiful whitewashed rendered frontage adorned with cascades of wisteria. To the rear, the house has seen thoughtful Victorian and modern extensions, and the whole occupies a substantial plot of approximately 0.60 acres, featuring delightful, south-facing gardens.

Arranged over two main floors with the benefit of a versatile attic space, the accommodation extends to around 1,972 sq.ft. The generous ground floor encompasses three reception rooms and a kitchen. The traditional living room is a dual-aspect space with two charming fireplace features, one housing a cosy wood-burning stove. The dining room also benefits from a wood-burning stove and flows seamlessly into the kitchen, which is sympathetically fitted with country-style cream units and granite worktops. Towards the rear, a family room offers bi-folding doors that open onto a seating terrace, providing lovely views across the garden. A spacious walk-in pantry and a utility room with a WC complete the ground floor. On the first floor, there are four bedrooms, including three doubles and one single. The family bathroom features both a bath and a separate shower unit. The principal bedroom suite is equipped with fitted wardrobes and an en-suite bathroom. The top floor attic room is currently configured as an office, having previously served as an occasional bedroom, offering flexible use.

Externally, a former garage has been thoughtfully converted into ancillary accommodation, comprising a studio with a kitchenette and a shower room. This excellent detached outbuilding provides an additional 264 sq.ft. of space and is heated by electric heaters, perfect for a home office, gym, or guest accommodation.

The fantastic large gardens of Rosewood House are a superb feature, enjoying sunshine throughout the day. Predominantly laid to lawn, the gardens extend to 180ft in length, beautifully screened by well-established trees and vibrant planted borders. Within the grounds, a range of outbuildings includes two bespoke built structures: a Roman-inspired pavilion and a secluded pagoda at the far end, both creating charming settings for outdoor entertaining. Additionally, there is a practical timber workshop with power and a further timber shed. There is extensive off-road parking accessed by a private gated drive.
