STUDY

OUTSIDE

The property is approached via a tarmacadam driveway, with a right of way serving a neighbouring property. There is an extensive parking area finished in a combination of tarmacadam and gravel, complemented by well-stocked planted borders and double gates providing vehicular access through to the rear garden.

A detached double garage benefits from an electric roller door, power and lighting, while gated access to both sides of the property allows convenient pedestrian access around the entire home.

To the rear, an outstanding full-width porcelain garden terrace provides a superb entertaining area overlooking beautifully maintained lawned gardens with mature trees, established planted borders and a number of additional seating areas. A garden shed is positioned to the side, while the gardens adjoin open fields and enjoy magnificent views towards Oversley Wood, creating an exceptional setting.
