Thinking of Selling?

If you are thinking of selling your home or just curious to discover the value of your property, Hunters would be pleased to provide free, no obligation sales and marketing advice. Even if your home is outside the area covered by our local offices we can arrange a Market Appraisal through our national network of Hunters estate agents.

We are delighted to present this charming two-bedroom terraced red-brick period house on the ever-popular Belmont Road, ideally positioned within walking distance of the town centre. The property benefits from its own driveway parking space and a versatile, insulated, double-glazed log cabin situated toward the end of the garden, offering an excellent space for work, hobbies, or relaxation. The generous garden features a pleasing mix of lawn and patio areas, complemented by well-planted flower beds and two highly useful outbuildings with light and power, perfect for storage or practical use. Internally, the accommodation includes an entrance area, a bathroom fitted with a modern white suite, and a welcoming sitting/dining room with multi-fuel burner. The first floor offers two double bedrooms, one of which provides access to a boarded and carpeted attic area with additional storage, creating further flexibility. From both the upstairs and the garden, there are wonderful views across the valley, adding to the home's appeal. This property combines period character, modern convenience, and versatile outdoor space, making it an excellent opportunity for a range of buyers.

Amenities

Belmont Road is nestled between the Bisley Road and Bisley Old Road, just under a mile from the centre of Stroud. The centre of Stroud is therefore easily accessible with a number of residents walking to town on a day to day basis. It is also accessible to open countryside beyond the town limits, with local walks to areas such as the Heavens, being an ever popular pursuit for many. Stroud itself has comprehensive leisure and shopping facilities as well as a mainline rail link to London Paddington. There is also a Waitrose, Tesco and Sainsbury's to choose from, whilst Junction 13 of the M5 is only a few miles distance too.

Directions

From our offices in John Street, proceed straight into London Road and over two mini roundabouts, passing Waitrose on your right hand side. Just before the next mini roundabout, turn left into Field Road and climb the hill, taking the right hand turn into Bisley Road. Proceed up the hill and take the first left into Belmont Road where the property will be found at the top on the left before the bend.
