Externally, the home enjoys a particularly appealing position on its own detached corner plot, giving it a sense of privacy and space that is rarely found. Its detached nature enhances the feeling of independence, while the plot itself offers excellent outside potential for landscaping, family enjoyment, or further enhancement, subject to any necessary permissions.

Located in Oadby, the property benefits from being in one of Leicester's most desirable suburban locations. Oadby is widely favoured for its attractive residential streets, strong community feel, and excellent range of everyday amenities, including shops, supermarkets, cafés, and leisure facilities.
