Denise White Agent Comments

Situated on the outskirts of the town centre in a quiet cul-de-sac, this two bedroom semi-detached property presents an excellent opportunity for those looking to modernise and create a charming home in a sought-after location.

The property boasts an attractive frontage with off-road parking and a pleasant front garden, while to the rear lies a tiered garden offering plenty of scope for landscaping.

Internally, the accommodation briefly comprises an entrance hall, a spacious lounge diner with a large bay window to the front and feature gas fire, and a kitchen with direct access to the rear garden. To the first floor are two well-proportioned double bedrooms and a bathroom.

Although in need of updating throughout, this property holds fantastic potential to become an attractive and comfortable home close to the town centre, local schools, and amenities.

Location

Known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages.

Anti-Money Laundering & ID Checks

Once an offer is accepted on a property marketed by Denise White Estate Agents we are required to complete ID verification checks on all buyers and to apply ongoing monitoring until the transaction ends. Whilst this is the responsibility of Denise White Estate Agents we may use the services of Guild365, to verify Clients' identity. This is not a credit check and therefore will have no effect on your credit history. You agree for us to complete these checks, and the cost of these checks is £30.00 inc. VAT per buyer. This is paid in advance, when an offer is agreed and prior to a sales memorandum being issued. This charge is non-refundable.
