Godolphin Road, London W12

A spectacular six-bedroom, mid-terraced Victorian family home, fully extended and finished to an exquisite standard.

This beautifully designed natural three-storey home, complemented by a lower ground floor, boasts soaring ceilings and offers an impressive 2,682 sq. ft. of living space. Retaining its period charm while seamlessly blending with modern living, the property features a double reception room with a striking fireplace, flowing effortlessly into a bespoke kitchen/dining area. The kitchen is fitted with marble worktops, a central island, and a range cooker, framed by elegant Crittall-style doors that open onto a west-facing garden. Additional highlights include a utility room and a well-proportioned first floor, where the master suite offers floor-to-ceiling wardrobes, a luxurious en-suite bathroom with a roll-top bath and separate shower. Across the upper floors, there are five further bedrooms and three bathrooms, all finished to an exceptional standard. Located on the sought-after Godolphin Road, this home is just moments from Westfield London, the exciting BBC White City Living development, and Soho House's flagship private members' club. With excellent transport links via the Central, Circle, and Hammersmith & City lines at Shepherd's Bush Green, this is a superb opportunity to own a stunning family home in a prime West London location.
