Ruspidge is a small village located in the Forest of Dean district of Gloucestershire. It is situated approximately 2 miles (3 kilometres) southeast of the town of Cinderford.

Ruspidge benefits from its location within the Forest of Dean, allowing residents to enjoy the natural beauty and recreational opportunities that the area offers. The forest is home to various wildlife species and provides an ideal setting for nature walks and wildlife spotting.

The village features a mix of residential properties, including traditional stone cottages and more modern housing developments. The surrounding countryside provides opportunities for outdoor activities such as walking, cycling, and exploring the woodlands.

While Ruspidge is a small village, it provides some essential amenities for its residents. These include a local shop, a primary school, a village hall, and a few local businesses. The village is also in proximity to nearby towns and villages where additional services and facilities can be found.

An open front porch with lighting and quarry tiled floor leads to the front door that opens into:
