Kings Gardens, Hove, BN3 2PF

Guide price £325,000 to £350,000

Situated in the prestigious Kings Gardens of Hove, this charming one bedroom flat offers a unique blend of historical elegance and modern comfort with panoramic sea and coastal views. This Grade II listed Victorian mansion building dates back to the 1880s and the apartment has one of the best sea views in Hove. The approach to the property is via an impressive and grand entrance hall where you are greeted by stunning Minton tiled floors, exquisite hand-painted stained glass, and intricate ceiling cornices and mouldings that reflect the building's rich heritage.

The well-managed block includes a lift and a grand staircase, making access to the apartment both convenient and elegant. This flat is a rare find, combining historical charm with modern living in one of Hove's most sought-after locations. This delightful one-bedroom apartment is situated on the third floor and features high ceilings and a spacious living room that is perfect for both relaxation and dining. The room is enhanced by original cornicing and double-glazed French doors that open onto a private balcony, offering breath taking panoramic views of the sea and coastline, with space to dine. The kitchen, designed with practicality in mind, includes a service hatch to the living room, allowing natural light to flow freely throughout the space.

The double bedroom is thoughtfully designed with sash windows framing the stunning direct sea views. There is a built in wardrobe and a mezzanine level, providing additional storage. The well-appointed bathroom features an oval corner bath, a separate shower enclosure and built-in cupboards, catering to all your needs.

This property is sold with a share of the freehold and a long lease remaining, providing peace of mind for future ownership.

Location

Kings Gardens is one of Hove's most sought after locations forming part of the Avenues conservation area. This property is set back from the Kingsway, directly opposite the prestigious Hove promenade and sea front, an outstanding area with easy access to the King Alfred Leisure Centre, local restaurants, eateries and bus routes. Church Road thoroughfare with its boutiques and wine bars are very close in addition to George Street's main shopping area.

This perfect Hove location is ideal for enjoying a seafront stroll, an ice cream at the famous Morocco's ice cream parlour or a calming walk around the new Hove Beach Park and Hove lagoon. Having undergone a 10 million pound regeneration, the new Hove Beach Park includes sports and leisure facilities, activity and relaxation spaces, and increased biodiversity. Hove mainline station is just over half a mile in distance and provides convenient commuter links to London and Gatwick. There are regular bus services on your door step allowing easy travel all across the city and to nearby towns and villages.
