Over 2,700 sqft Gated Property* Bespoke Build* Set back from the road behind a wide, gated entrance and generous stone-finished driveway, this distinctive four-bedroom detached home offers privacy, charm, and beautifully landscaped rear gardens. Built in 1999 to a bespoke Potton Heritage design, the property blends timeless architectural features with modern comfort, all set within a peaceful cul-de-sac of individually designed homes in the popular semi-rural village of Castleton.

This character-rich home is full of warm detail — from exposed timber beams and pine moulded architraves to traditional farmhouse-style internal doors with period fittings. Elegant hardwood double-glazed windows frame the interiors, while two striking Dovre cast iron log burners provide focal points in each of the principal reception rooms.

At the heart of the home is a stylish, recently fitted Magnet kitchen, forming part of a generous open-plan kitchen and breakfast room that extends over 25 feet. Designed with both form and function in mind, the space includes integrated appliances, ample room for a dining table, French doors opening onto the garden, a quality slate tiled floor, and a striking Mandarin split-faced stone feature wall.

Inside, the home opens with a welcoming entrance hall, leading to a downstairs cloakroom and a versatile study or snug. Comfort is assured year-round thanks to a balanced gas-fired underfloor heating system powered by a Vaillant boiler.
